Songs of Praise 7pm Zoom

If you have tried Freedom Bakery's fabulous breads from Alba Collective in Bearsden or Gavin's Mill, come along to Sofa Surfers and hear the story of how this wonderful social enterprise started and has evolved.

And if you haven't tried Freedom Bakery bread, then Thursday is your perfect introduction to the story behind this bakery, working with Low Moss Prison, re-skilling folk in positive and life-affirming ways.

But it also tastes fabulous, as all handmade artisan bread does. So, go pick a special pot of jam in preparation for Thursday, and enjoy.

SingSong!

Have just two dates left before the summer: 15th June and 29th which will be a big philharmonic bang. Please feel free to join in and see what it is like and sing together.

Walk to Worship is Sunday 20th, but perhaps we should rename it Walk in Worship.

This is an initiative from our COP26 group in partnership with St Andrew's and St Joseph's. While we will not all be able to be at church physically, perhaps we can plug in some earphones and wander while we worship, choosing a spot for a walk on Sunday 20th (we'll do what we can about the weather!) while listening to the podcast. We'll offer a rambler-friendly version on Sunday 20th!

The final Songs of Praise for the season will be on Sunday 20th June, where we'll simply have a big sing. It is entirely up to you what hymns we sing, so please submit your choices to mail@nkchurch.org.uk and we will do our best to find suitable videos to go with them, and create an virtual feast of song on Zoom at 7pm where everyone can join in from their sofa.

Having to record those who have died is always difficult, especially when we have been unable to gather as a whole community to celebrate their lives. We record their names here but still speak of them, their story, their part in our lives, and celebrate what they have been to us.
