

Go with holes in your certainty.
They are not failures of faith.

They are where the light gets in.

---

Go with the wind at your back
that you didn't manufacture and cannot control.

May the wholly, holey, holy Spirit journey with you.

holly · holey · wholly

PENTECOST

seven small pentecosts

---

FOR THE WEEK AHEAD

1 Light something red tonight. Sit with it. Don't pray.
Just breathe.

2 Open a window you don't usually open.
Notice what comes in.

3 Write one word on paper — something to breathe life into.
Put it where you'll see it.

4 Learn to say Come, Holy Spirit in one other language.
Say it out loud.

5 Make a pinwheel. Watch the wind you cannot see.
The Spirit moves like this.

6 Tell someone one true thing that gives you life.
Not polite. True.

7 Go outside. Listen. Don't name what you hear. Just receive it.
Then come back next Sunday. There is always more.
