

Here is a space, O God,
For me to hear you,
To hear your voice in the other
In the headlines of conflicts
The stories of hunger
The news of injustice
May I pause long enough to hear them
And shape my day around them

prayer

